THAT WRIT OF OUSTER.

The rumor has again gone abroad that a writ of ouster has been prepared and that an attempt will be made to unseat President Haves. This movement, of course, is said to be a secret one, none but a few of the leading ones being acquainted with the programme. It is claimed by those Democrats inside the little ring, that the new scheme meets with more favor than the old one because it supposed that Mr. Tilden will be too ill to avail himself of the chances of possession which might result under such a writ, and therefore Mr. Hendricks would become President. The secret movement got heralded about Washington and New York and attracted some attention, but the leading politicians of the Democratic party do not pin their faith to the reports about this ouster scheme. Governor Hendricks has been interviewed and he declares that he knows nothing of the writ, though he failed to state whether or not he favored the proposed movement. The more prominent Democrats say that they don't be-Gazette of the 25th inst., that there are a lieve the leading men in their party are goodly number of "wayward and unfortufools enough to suppose such a scheme can be carried out. ### "THE DUMB SPEAK."

Under the above head the Milwaukee Sentinel of Wednesday prints a long article descriptive of the "remarkable achievements in the education of deaf mutes," and the amount named will pass, and that the infers that the system is new in this State. We are informed by inconsistency growing out of the action of Dr. Whiting that this method has been taught at the Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb at Delayan, for the past ten years, and with success in all cases to which it is adapted. They now have a class of twenty in the Institute, the members of which are masters of the articulating system. It also has been used with success in New York and Massachusetts for the past fifteen years, and for a long he would not have wrongly quoted us. It time in Illinois. We mention these facts that the public may know that teaching deat mutes to articulate and thereby hold conversations, is quite common in this country, and that our State institution was among the first to adopt it. This system of articulation, however, can be taught with advantage only to those who are semimutes -those who once possessed the faculty of speaking but have lost it in part in consequence of the loss of hearing. So far, the teaching of the congenital class has been attended with much difficulty and there is but little hope that it will ever become the general means of communicating with the deaf and dumb. The Sentinel seems to take the ground that the 16,205 deaf and dumb in the United States can be taught the articulating system, whereas the experience of the best teacher in the country is, that except in a very few cases, it can not be taught with any degree of success to the average of the congenital class. The sign language is the only one which can become universal and permanent.

The prehistoric millstones which were found in Waukesha county recently and deposited in the State Historical Society, have proved to be a humbug. At the time they were discovered they were thought to be relics of antiquity, and were highly prized, but a correspondent in Hartford writes to the State Journal on the subject, and gives this history of these "relics:" In 1854, a German by the name of Schaundoller, a potter by trade, imported them from Germany to this town, where he used them for the purpose of grinding clay to make his pottery with. He died in 1855 or 1856, and his pottery was abandoned, and the said mill-stones were left lying on the ground near where last used. Senator Rice sent his team from Merton here and took them to his home, some two years ago, and now they are palmed off on the Historical Society, as very ancient and pre-

The State Journal announces the sudden death of the wife of Col. Thomas Reynolds, of Madison, which occurred in that city early on Wednesday morning. She retired at a late hour Tuesday night in perfect health, and at about two o'clock in the morning was attacked by a violent coughing which resulted in hemorrhage of the lung, and causing death in one hour and a half thereafter. She had resided in Madison with her husband since 1847. Col. Reynolds is one of the best known men in the State.

The Fond du Lac Commonwealth speaks in this wise: "Since Madison can feed off the State fair the coming season can't that object of public charity pinch along without any of the other appropriations heretofore asked for ?"

The Boston Herald is authority for the statement that Mr. Hewitt, Mr. Tilden's particular triend, and the late chairman of the Democratic National Committee, prophi ecies the early breaking up of the Democratic party.

The House passed the bill yesterday without division, but when Mr. Ingalls brought it into the Senate, this morning, Messra. Blaine, Cankling, Dawes, Eston and others attacked it. Conkling was especially bitter upon the President for appointing officers whose friends had not sufficient confidence to go on their bond. Blaine was equally severe on the President and Schurz and declared that the title of this bill should be "An act to relieve the Secretary appointing bad men to office."

A controyersy dating back many years anterior to this oc. currence arose as to the boundary lines beween the plantations of the Elder Wilcox and Walker, both of whom have been at loggerheads about the matter for some time. Last week, Chas. McClellan, a sonin-law of Major Walker, one of the con-testants, and Phillip Wilcox, the other disputant, met, when harsh language passed between them, resulting in McClellan's challenging Wilcox. Both of the young men have been arrested.

THE 4 PER CENTS.

Western Farmers Suited-Large Daily Subscriptions from the West.

New York, Feb. 27.-The 4 per cent bonds seem to suit the farmers out West, who are subscribing largely. It is said that orders from Western citles for subscriptions to the new popular loan of 4 per cent bonds are being received in this city at an average of nearly $100,000 a day, principally from Chicago, St. Louis, and Cincinnati. One order was received yesterday from Racine, Wis., for $50,000. Dealers in this class of Government securities state that a great Western demand has sprung up recently for Government bonds of the small denominations, caused, it is believed, by a growing lack of confidence in savings banks. They say Western farmers who have sold their crops at remunerative prices are putting their earnings into the popular loan.

Washington, Feb. 27.-It is reported that the purpose of a resolution introduced in the House to-day is to revive the old inves tigation into the Little Rock & Fort Smith bond transaction with which Blaine's name was prominently connected during the Presidential campaign. ### PRESIDENTS.

Their Financial Resources-Interesting Facts as to Their Wealth.

Gen. Grant's long absence in Europe has called attention to his pecuniary resources, and to the wealth of the presidents who have preceded him. Gen. Grant suffered a good many losses within the latter part enough probably to live moderately without annovance. His children who are married are able to take care of themselves, and the vounger boys are certainly bright enough to do it. But this was not true of all the presidents. Jefferson died rather poor. Congress purchased his library at a very extravagant price, and without that, it is said, he would have found it very diffisla may pause in time, before she provokes | cult, in the last years of his life, to have subsisted. Madison saved considerable money out of his salary, and died quite rich. Congress gave his widow $30,000 for his manuscript. James Monroe probably died poorer than any other president. He had absolutely nothing, and was buried through the charity of his friends. John Quincy Adams was always thrifty and pru uent, and lett quite a fortune. His heirs own considerable property in Washington to-day. Martin Van Buren died rich. He always kept his pinched pennies very closely. He spent scarcely anything for politics. Daniel Webster, although never president, spent a sum of money which would be equal to a large fortune, the result of his professional labors and of his political work. He left a little estate to his children, amounting to perhaps $20,000, while he owed his friends more than a quarter of a million. Henry Clay, who was never rich enough to entertain very much in Washington, managed his affairs very prudently, lett an estate estimated at $100,000. Polk, always economical in office, saved $50,000 out of his term, and left to his heirs $150,000. John Tyler was a thrifty person in the presidential office. When he entered it he was bankrupt, and he saved money in it, married a rich widow and died rich. Zachary Taylor left perhaps $200,000. Millard Fillmore was wealthy and left the heirs a considerable sum. Pierce died leaving an estate worth over $50,000. Buchanan left but a moderate fortune. Hayes is rich and is saving money on a $50,000 salary.

the exception of one appalling print of Wellington and Blucher meeting at Waterloo. This print rather overwhelms the cabin, and I can imagine nothing more conductive to sea sickness than a calm study of this bewildering work of art. The General has a commodious little room in the bow of the ship; his son lies in a swinging cot and takes his rest like a clock pendulum. We are allowed to do pretty much as we please, being outside of naval regulations. But the steady routine goes on around us. On a man-of-war life moves to the beat of the drum. The hours, the watches, the calls, the drill, the discipline, the ceremony-the sense of command and the sense of obedience-all this is so new to us that it is profoundly interesting. Life on board a man-of-war is like being a cog in a wheel-you go round and round and cannot help yourself. You rise by the beat of the drum; the drum beats when you go asleep. Its alarm summons you to dinner Everything 19 strict. steady precise. Here is a company of young gen tlemen-and, as far as one can know, gitted and accomplished gentlemen-who give up home, and a career at home, to live for years and years in a place about as large as a New York drawing-room. Their whole life changes. They merge their individuality in a code of regulations. They listen for the drum tap that may call them at any moment-at midnight to fight the storm. at day break to fight an armed foe. Home and friends are given up, and a new lifean artificial life-is accepted. I should not ask better comrades in time of peace or better detenders in time of war than my good friends of the Vandalia mess. Our general fell into the sea life quite readly. He seemed to welcome the sea with a rapture of a boy going home for a holiday. I can well imagine what a holiday it must be to one who has done in sixteen years

TIT FOR TAT. The Country Editor and the Church

Festival Dead-Beat. He was the manager of a church fair, and one morning he walked into the newspaper office and said : "Want an item this morning?"

"Of course," replied the editor. Whereupon the visitor laid the following note upon the table: "The ladies of the-Street church w.

give a festival at their vestry hall next Friday evening. Literary and musical entertainments will be provided, and a supper will be served to all who desire. The ladies in charge of the affair have much experience in such matters and are sure to provide a good time. The admission will shoes, be only fitteen cents, and it is certain that no one can spend that amount to better advantage. Be sure to go and take your When the editor had read it, he said:

"Oh, I see, an advertisement." "No, not an advertisement. We prefer to have it go in the local column," replied the manager. And seeing that the editor looked skeptical, he continued-"It will interest a great many of your readers, and help a good cause; beside, we have spent so much money getting up our entertainment that we can't afford to advertise it without increasing the price of the tickets. In such a matter as this we Balls, ought to be willing to help each other." "Well," said the editor, "If it goes into Rattles, the locals, I suppose you would reciprocate by reading a little notice in your own Pouches, church next Sunday.' The visiting brother asked what notice, and the editor wrote and handed him the Pails,

"The Weekly Chronicle for the coming year will be the best and cheapest family paper in Maine. Its proprietor has had much experience and has all the help which a large outlay of money can procure. His paper has a larger circulation than any other published in the county. and is to be furnished at only two dollars amount to a better advantage. Be sure to 6000Year take the Chronicle and subscribe for 'your The manager hemmed and hesitated and then said, solemply, that he doubted whether it would be judicious to read such a notice, but suggested that if it was printed, copies of it might be distributed at the door of the vestry on the evening of the entertainment.

"Yes," said the editor, but it would attract more attention in the middle of a sermon. It will interest a large number of your congregation and help a good cause; and besides so much money is spent upon the Chronicle that I do not see how the owner can afford to print handbills to advertise it without increasing the subscription price. In such a matter as this we ought to be willing to help each other." Then the gentlemen saw the situation .-

Inaugurating a King. Julia Ward Howe, who is at present in Rome, writes as follows concerning King Humbert exchanging with members of the Italian Parliament the or of fidelity to the constitution: Through the kindness of a friend, I enjoyed the opportunity of witnessing this interesting ceremony, which was appointed to take place at 2 p. m. armed with my ticket, I made my ay through the lines of soldiery that guarded the access to the Parliament building. The windows on its front were to instruct as well as amuse. all gay with bright draperies. Entering, I found the immense amphitheater crowded in every part. MURPHY IN WASHINGTON.

What He lo Doing at the Capital-A Little Misunderstanding.

The Murphy temperance movement in Washington is accomplishing much good, although it has not yet had any effect on Congressmen, particularly Senators. Since Murphy's advent, however, all liquors, and even ale and beer, have been excluded from the Capitol restaurants, and several of the lowest rum shops have been closed in the northern part of the city. There was quite a lively misunderstanding between managers and Murphy on the money question. Some of the promoters of the temperance movement thought that it was improper for the temperance apostle to put up at the best hotel in the city, and to keep his daughter there also; that the money ought to be devoted to charity, etc. The local advocates of the cause, however, decided that the work would not prosper very well without the noted leader, and so all difficulties have been bridged over.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are SCHENCK's PULMONIC SYRUP SCHENCK'S SERWEED TONIC, and SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, and if taken before the lungs are destroyed they effect a speedy cure. To these medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the anngs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, and the patient has relief from the prostrating cougu. The Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse and stimulate the stomach and liver; they remove all obstructions, relax the gall bladder and start the bile freely, and the liver is soon relieved. Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant ed mixes with the food and prevents souring. It assists the digestion by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and Pulmonic Syrup will make good blood; then the lungs heal, and the patient will surely get well it Philadelphia, every Monday. ### SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

To see a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the Radrau Currence of any proprietary medicine, that the Radrau Currence of the constant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists, and patients is manimous on this point, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position this remedy has attained, and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER. From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.L. Messrs. Weeks & Potter: Gentlemen. — Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of Sanford's Radical Cure for Catabeel, I am induced to drop you a line to say that sithough I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of Sanford's. I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years, and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. Henry Wells, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial, I am, gantlemen, very truly, etc. Theo, P, Bogers.

SEVEN YEARS IN A MAD HOUSE.

Miss Susan Dickie, a Sane . Woman, Confined to an Asylum in Order that Her Relatives May Get Mer $200,-

From the New York World.

Miss Susan Dickie, whose alleged insanity has been the subject of inquiry by three commissioners and a sheriff's jury since the 9th of last December, was recently declar-ed to be of sound mind and to have never been insane, although she has been confined in an asylum for over seven years. The present proceedings de lunatico inquirendo were instituted against Miss D. by her prothers and sisters, Mrs. Emma D. Van Vieck, Servina D. Turrell, Helen D. Adams, E. P. and Horace Dickie, more particularly the first named sister. Judge Donahue appointed Messrs. Wm. C. Traphagen, Edward Bradley, and Wm. A. Seaver as commissioners. The sheriff's jury and the commission were satisfied, after several meetings, that a wrong had been attempted against Miss D., and upon their suggestion, Judge Dohahue appointed Mr. Lewwis L. Delatield to see after her interests. It was found that Miss. D. had been confined in the Bloomington asylum since September, 1871; that while there she had refused to associate with the lunatics, and was in all respects like a sane woman. Throughout her whole previous life she was proved to have been saue. A large number of Miss Dickie's schoolmates testified that while at school she was a bright and sensible girl, had no difficulty with other girls, and was proficient in her various studies, especially in French and music. It appears that she had kept house for her father after she was grown up, was devoted in religious matliberal in charitable enterprises, and a constant at-tendant upon the services in the church of which she was a member. Her sisters always disliked her. One of her sisters persuaded her to leave her father's house in 1871, under the promise that she would have a much gayer time living with her. Miss Dickie consulted with friends, who the Bloomingdale asylum. Dr. White testified that he had never reated Susan, had never spoken to her and had only seen her in passing through thing to restore them to perfect health.

Respectfully yours, U. L. PETTENGILL, Firm of S. M. Pettengill & Co...

No. 10 State St., Deston, treated Susan, had never spoken to her and had only seen her in passing through the rooms of the house when attending her father; he examined her, however, for a few minutes, and then signed the certificate of lunacy. He did not know the day of the year when the certificate was made, and refused to say what he was paid s person of weak mind and subject to delusions, but on cross examination it appeared that they were not experts, and not even familiar with medical terms relating to insanity. Letters written by the young woman during a period of many years, some them dated from the asylum, were put in evidence, and in their subject matter and style were very interesting, coherent, and showed a high grade of culture and intelligence.

Miss Dickie's family testified that she was insane, and that the asylum was the only place she was fit to live in. It appeared from the testimony that in case she was adjudged a lunatic her brothers and sisters would receive about $200,000 more from their father's estate, inasmuch as she would be unable to make a will disposing of her share, and they would receive all the accumulations. The sheriff's jury rendered their verdict last night, declaring that Miss Dickie is not a lunatic, and that she is capable of the government of herself and the management of her property. They said further that she was of sound mind during all the time of her confinement at Bloomingdale asylum; that that institution is not and has not been a suitable dwelling place for her, and that she should be immediately permitted to remove therefrom. The jury found that all her brothers and sisters approved of and that some of them were instrumental in the confinement of their sister in the asylum. The jurors suggested that the court should nominate or appoint some suitable person to watch over the interests of Miss Dickie's interests, assist and advise her in the employment of suitable agents for the management of her estate and in the expenditure of her income. The jury said in conclusion that the testimony clearly established that no one of the brothers or sisters of Miss Dickie is a proper person to be so nomi-

Patrick Dickie, Susan's father, died on the 16th of last November at an advanced age, and imbecile, leaving property worth nearly a million dollars. He gave Susan the income of over $150,000, the principal to go to her children, or in default of children, to her brothers and sisters.

Glimpses of Lincoln.

So much has been written about Lincoln's private life and personal habits, that it seems unnecessary now to add more than a word. He was simple in all his tastes; liked old songs and old poetry. He was always neatly but not finically dressed. He disliked gloves, and once I saw him extract seven or eight pairs of gloves from an overcoat pocket, where they had accumulated after having been furnished him by Mrs. Lincoln. Usually, he drank tea and coffee at the table, but he preferred milk or cold water. Wine was never on the table at Office in Smith & Jackman's block, opposite the postoffice, Janesville. Practices Dentistry in all the White House, except when visitors, its branches. Administers nitrous oxide gas for the painless extraction of teeth. sep5dawly The President's glass was always filled, and he usually touched it to his lips. Sometimes he drank a few swallows, but never a whole glass, probably.

ple-hearted manners made a strong impression upon those who met him for the first time. I have known impressionable women, touched by his sad face and gentle bearing, to go away in tears. Once I found him sitting in his chair so collapsed and weary that he did not look up or speak when I addressed him. He put out his hand, mechanically, as if to shake hands, He was cordial and affable, and his simwhen I told him I had come at his bidding. It was several minutes before he was roused enough to say that he "had had a mighty hard day." Once, too, at a reception at the White House, I joined the long "queue" of people, shook hands with him, received the usual "Glad to see you, sir," and passed on. Later in the evening, meeting me, he | March, 1878. declared that he had not seen me before, and explained his preoccupation of man-per while the people were shaking hands with him by saying that he was "thinking of a man down South." It afterward came deceased.

Once when a visitor used profane lan-guage in his presence, he said, "I thought guage in his presence, he said, "I thought Senator C, had sent me a gentleman. I was mistaken. There is the door. I wish you good-night." At another time, a legation from a distant State. yielted him with a protest against certain appointments. The paper contained some reflections upon the character of Senator Baker, Lincoln's old and beloved friend. With great dignity, the President said, "This is my paper which you have given me?"

Settle their account, and praying that the same may be adjusted, and the usual order of assignment made, it is ordered that said account be passed upon and said order made, by this court, at the office of the Junge thereof, in the city of Janesville, in this county, on the 19th day of March next, at 9 o'clock a. m

And it is further ordered that notice thereof be given to all persons interested by publishing a copy of this order once each week for three successive weeks, in the Janesville Gazette, a daily newspaper published at said city.—Feb. 19th, 1878.

HER OWN WORDS.

BALTIMORE, MD., Feb. 13, 1877. MR. H. R. STEVENS. MR. H. R. STEVENS.

Dear Sir,—Since several years I have got a sore and very painful foot. I had some physicians, but they couldn't cure me. Now I have heard of your vegetine from a lady who was sick for a long time, and became all well from your Vegetine, and I went and bought me on a bottle of Vegetine; und after I had used one bottle, the pains left me, and it began to heal, and then I bought one other bottle, and so I take it yet. I thank God for this remedy and yourself; and wishing every sufferer may pay attention to it. It is a blessing for health.

VEGETINE SAFE AND SURE.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and, yielding to the persuasions of a friend, I consented to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debilty and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose; and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling. Since then I have not healthed to give Vegetine my most unqualified endorse ment, as being a safe, sure and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. Vegetine is the only medicine I use; and as long as I live I never expect to find a better. Yours truly,

CITY AND COUNTY

BRIEFLETS.

- -Bright beams. -The streets are convalescing.
- -Fill Lappin's hall full to-night. -February leaves on to-night's train. -A little dust was flying yesterday.

Precious little, though. -The bill appropriating $18,500 to the Blind Institute has passed both the Senate and Assembly. -A good time to wash up the front windows. Those who do the washing don't think so, though.

-Plenty of amusement, and no need of hanging on the sidewalk and commenting on the passers-by.

-All are invited to attend the entertain ment at Lappin's hall to-night, which will commence prompt at 8 o'clock.

-Mrs. Hill, mother of Mrs. Dexter G. Tracy, is still very ill, as the result of the accident she met with some weeks ago.

-Many of the merchants are keeping open house, the front doors of their stores being thrown back as though summer was here. -The tickets for the Rive-King concert will be ready for sale to-morrow morning. The concert takes place Thursday evening March 7th. -There is a minor strain in the law which may sadden the hearts of some of those who persist in selling gin to the lads who have not reached the voting age. -The Art Section of the Mutual Improvement Club will try to improve themselves and others to-morrow night. A paper on "St. Peters" is to be read by Mrs. Collins.

-Remember that all the persons hereto fore announced, will positively take part in the entertainment at Lappin's hall to-night Any one of the parts alone will be worth 10 cents. Go and see.

-There is every reason to believe that the noted hog case will not rest in the pigeon-hole. It is to be called out in a new form, and will probably haunt Justice Phelp's slumbers for some weeks to come.

-Mr. Aaron Sonneborn has started for New York, to purchase a spring stock of clothing and gents' furnishing goods. The firm proposes to fill their store with the nobbiest and best goods they can get in the market.

-The Christ church entertainment at Lappin's hall to-night should not be forgotten. An unusually interesting programme has been prepared, to be followed by a hop in Apollo hall.

-The Musical Club has kindly consent ed to postpone its meeting, arranged for next Tuesday evening, until some other night, not yet named, in order to give the Temple of Honor a free evening for its entertainment.

quarry, is now in the city, where he has many warm friends and acquaintances, he having formerly been teller in the First National Bank.

-Sheriff Colley has returned from Waupun, whither he took John Smith for a year's stay. He says Sullivan and Sutton express regrets because they could not have spent their two years in the Janesville jail instead of pegging out the time on Waupun shoes.

-Complaint is made about the boys annoying church services. They quiet down when any officer approaches, and it is hard to catch them in any overt act. The best way for the brethren to do is to spy out a Justice, and make them stop it. -The lecture of James Kay Applebee at All Souls church next Saturday night, will doubtless draw together a goodly sized won here a local favoritism, and many will be glad to hear him again. His subject will be "The Merchant of Venice."

-The entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Temple of Honor next Tuesday evening will be in the Opera house, instead of the Temple hall, as first announced. The demand for tickets has been lively, and a change made in consequence to accomodate all who desire to attend, without being crowded. Miss Lily Runals, who gained 'so many admirers at her last appearance here, will take a leading part, and some of the best home talent will assist. The tickets are twenty-five cents, and ten cents additional for reserved seats-for sale at Moseley's.

TROUBLE IN SCHOOL. A serious complaint has been laid at the door of William Hugunin, a school teacher in the town of LaPrairie. Mr. J. C. Stanton is the maker of the charge, which is to the effect that his son Charles was brutally used by said teacher. The boy was doing nothing-of course not. No boy in school ever does. He was quietly sitting on a low bench, and his legs were so long that they reached under the seat in front and accidentally touched the legs of another boy who shouted, "stop it." The teacher proceeded to young Stanton's bench, and after chiling him, suddenly kicked him off the bench, not performing the operation skillfully enough to avoid bruising the boy. Mr. Stanton, after making this statement of the trouble, to-day swore out a warrant for the teacher's arrest for assault, and the further details will be examined next Saturday by Justice Phelps.

As is all school troubles there are doubt-committee had examined the matter, and matter in charge. It will take some time were of the opinion that this was the only course for the Council to pursue, but some of the other members disagreed to time for clipping arrives. the proposition, and consideration of the subject was laid over until the next meeting, when the assessors will be called upon for an explanation. On motion of Ald. Blount, the clerk was authorized to draw two orders, one in favor of Lawrence & Atwood, $112.42, assignees of John W. Allen and one in favor of Wm. Sillito, $93.48, assignee of H. E. Lee, the same to pay for grading West Milwaukee Street in 1869.

The Treasurer was authorized to settle mittees.

On motion of Ald. Lawrence, the clerk Thos. Welch to appear before the Common Council at the next regular meeting and show cause why his license should not be revoked. Atter a statement by the city attorney, against the Beale-Williams lot was referred to the judiciary committee and city attorney. Ald. Blount moved that the salary of the city treasurer for the ensuing year be fixed Ald. Church moved to amend by fixing the sum at $1000. Lost. Ald. Blount's motion was adopted. The council adjourned.

A VALUABLE GIFT.

The Water Witch boys are jubilant.

They have received from William Kemp, of New York, a handsome gift, consisting af all the metallic parts for a new harness, consisting of devises in the way of snaps and hitch-ups, by which the company will now be able to hitch up and be out of the house, and upon street, in ten seconds or less. The metallic portions of the new harness are elegant, and are pronounced, by those familiar with such things, to be of even finer finish, and more convenient, than any et put in use, not excepting those in New York city. The gift is a valuable one, not only in the matter of dollars and cents, but in the fact that it indicates that Mr. Kemp loses none of his interest in the success of his old company, and none of his kindly feel--Mr. George J. Williams, of the firm of ling for the members. The company hope Williams & Co., owners of an extensive to make a marked improvement in the time required to get ready for action, and will doubtless succeed. Mr. Kemp, in spite of his large business interests elsewhere, seems to remember Janesville and its welfare with great kindliness. As soon as the other portion of the harness can be completed the boys will give the citizens a chance to see how speedily an engine can be hitched to and rolled out. They promise to get out in ten seconds or less or take down the

AMONG THE ANIMALS.

Burr Robbins is showing his usual centerprise in preparing for his summer campaign, and proposes to start forth with a the boys and make formal complaint before | much larger and better show than eyer before. He will have hard work to beat his former record, but from present indications, it appears that he will do so. As already noted he has been making extenaudience as that gentleman has already sive purchases, and took a lively hand in the sale of Queen's circus, procuring therefrom some valuable additions to his own He has made extensive additions to his menagerie, during the past winter, and among the fine specimens added, thereto may be found the following: An African impoofo, or eland, from the Cape of Good Hope-the largest of the antelopean ruminants; a hippopotamus hog, one of the rarest animals on exhibition, there being but this, and jone other, specimen in this country; a giant kangaroo; an Australian wallaby ; a white Brahmin lebu, held sacred by the Hindoos; an Asiatic lion and lioness; two spotted byenss, a striped hyena ; an East Indian leopard ; a cape tiger a white gazelle, from the East Indies ; two jackals; a peccary; a Hudson Bay wolt and ten Arabian camels.

Besides these he has added eight Borneo ponies, which are much nicer than the Shetland ponies, and which will make the finest pony team in this country.

THE OPENING NIGHT.

Everything has been put in readiness for the opening of the new Academy of Music this evening. This little theatre is new and attractively furnished, and is arranged to seat about 200, and there is no reason why it should not become from the very start, a popular place of amusement. Some good people have been engaged, and they will doubtless not only be greeted by a crowd on the opening, but will be liberally patronized during their stay. Hon. H. A. Patterson is announced to give an inaugural address, atter which the company will appear in the comedy of "The Coming Woman," in which the well known Neil Burgess will be supported by Miss Nellie Pike, F. K. Wallace, G. W. Pike and Mr. G. P. Walters. The company also includes Charles Lakence, who in his specialty of the north of Ireland dialect is sald to be immense, and the celebrated scout, California Joe, who plays with cappon bails as with marbles. " My Mother-in-Law" which has had such a run in New York and elsewhere will be put on the boards at an early date. Manager Marshall announces his intention to engage none but artists of well recognized merit, and the present bill indicates that his promise is to be faithfully kept.

A new woolen mill has been built at Albany by a stock company, of which Dr. S. A. Pond, of this city, owns the controlling interest. Last Monday the new machinery arrived at Evansyille, and called a new and convenient form.

out a wonderful indication of enthusiasm among the farmers in the vicinity of the new mill. Over thirty teams were proffered without money and the without price to haul machinery to Albany, and the string of wagons made almost a connected link between the two towns. Some who had no teams to offer, brought out greenbacks and offered to give their money to pay others Ald. Blount presented an order to re- for cartage. It is evident that the farmers feel that the new enterprise will be of local value to all, and their enthusiasm must be to get the machinery in place, but it is promised to be in running order before the

MUSICAL AND MIRTHFUL. There was a fair audience at the Opera house last evening, though not as large as the character of the entertainment merited. The first portion of the evening was given mainly to ballad singing, duets and trios in which the Clement Bros., and Abe. Forrester showed marked ability. The latter part of the evening was devoted to a sort of extravaganza in which the troubles attending a German musician in organizing the back tax of the National Banks on a a band in this country, were funnily debasis which had been agreed to by com- picted. His band consisted finally of an organist who understood German only, a dumb Frenchman, and a rollicking Yanand attorney were instructed to notify kee, and the mirth excited by the incidents of the scene caused many a side to ache with laughter, and gave tight tension to many a vest button. The strictly musical features of the entertainment were much superior to those furnished the matter of the Nicholson payement tax | traveling concerts generally, throughout the programme there ran a vein of wit and humor which captured all, and encores and applause were abundant. Forrester is a host of himself, and is wonderfully successful in his delineations of German and Irish character. H. D. Clement makes one of the best Yankee characters that ever appeared before a Janesville audience. M. C. Clement's chief excellence is in his admirable rendition of ballads. He has a clear voice of great flexibility, and bearing the marks of careful culture. As a trio with M. C. Clement, soprano, H. D. Clement as bara-A. M. Forrestone. tenor, they are hard to beat. All who attended seemed delight, ed, and it is to be hoped that these gentlemen may conclude to again visit Janesville. The entertainment was decidedly unique as well as artistic, filled with fun and trolle, and yet chaste and elevating in its character.
